HOW THE APPLICANT ANSWERED THE SALES QUESTIONS
Good Entry Level Aggressive Sales

HOW THE CANDIDATE ANSWERED THE SALES CLOSING QUESTIONS:

When the prospect 'wants to think about it', s/he persists with intelligent questions.

(If the prospect says, 'I want to think about it.' good salespeople will persist with intelligent questions.)

S/he wants to close the deal when the prospect does, even in the middle of a presentation.

(Good salespeople know that more talking after the person wants to buy can undo a sale.)

When a prospect says, 'Your services are too expensive.' s/he asks if there is anything else.

(Asking if there is anything else they are concerned about is OK but could be better.)

HOW THE CANDIDATE ANSWERED THE SALES MARKETING QUESTIONS:

S/he thinks talking is more important than asking good questions.

(Top salespeople believe it is more powerful to ask good questions than to talk and explain.)

S/he thinks the best approach to sales is being brave enough to try new approaches.

(Good salespeople think the best approach to sales is being brave enough to try new approaches.)

Believes asking for the business regardless of rejection.

(Asking those to do business regardless of rejection will improve the marketing effort.)

S/he believes the prospect's emotional wants are the most important.

(The prospect's personal and emotional wants are the biggest driver behind almost any sale.)

S/he believes to get started you should try several approaches even if a little unprepared.

(Most good salespeople will say to this last question, "S/he believes to get started you should try several approaches even if a little unprepared".)

S/he believes the best way to get new business is to focus on volume and quality of calls.

(Those good at cold calling believe it is a numbers game and a quality game.)

S/he believes it is alright to approach people senior in rank even if a little unacceptable.

(Good salespeople are brave and will approach people even if a little unacceptable.)
